

Barry Hill

Apart from being a qualified accountant Barry has spent most of his working life as a Finance Director with good overseas experience. Barry has a very rounded picture of most of the difficulties business life can throw at a SME. In more recent years Barry has been giving business advice to SMEs and has assisted more than one in overcoming financial obstacles and, in doing this, mentored and trained the management in financial measurement and awareness.

Peter Kelly

Peter is a specialist that assists both start-up and growth companies to prepare themselves for the complex and time consuming funding process and helps them secure that all important investment or loan that is required for future growth. Introductions can be made to over 90 different sources of funds, including equity, debt and asset backed finance.

Chris Scanlon

Chris is a graduate chartered accountant with 20 years experience in blue chip companies and the last five years with small high growth companies. He is able to use his financial background to help businesses get to grips with the challenges and opportunities ahead of them. With significant experience of fund raising as well as acquisitions, joint ventures and turnarounds, he also has extensive experience of IT systems development and implementation.

Stephen Hill

Stephen is a marketing expert with a long history of helping businesses grow. He holds a Masters degree in Marketing and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Marketing. He has lived and worked in UK, US and Europe with some of the world's largest companies as well as some of the smallest. His areas of expertise are Marketing Strategy & Tactics, Marketing Plans, Implementation.

All advisors are Accredited Executive Associates of the Institute for Independent Business

